STUDENTS ARE URGED TO JOIN RED UNION

WINNIPEG, Nov. 22.—(CP)—The National Federation of Canadian University Students has been urged to join the Communist-dominated International Union of Students in an editorial in the Manitoba, undergraduate newspaper of the University of Manitoba.

"If our concept of democracy has any validity, it is dynamic enough to exist in the same area as Communism," wrote Editor Jack Madden.

The Canadian Federation sought admittance to the international organization last summer but was refused because it wanted partisan political activity excluded from discussions. Canadian students should affiliate anyway, Mr. Madden writes, saying that political problems do not disappear if ignored.

Bernard Bowen, president of the students union of the University of Alberta, said no approach has been made to him urging Canadian students to join the International Union.

His Majesty Is Suffering From Arterial Ailment

LONDON, Nov. 23.—(CP)—The King is suffering from an arterial ailment, Buckingham Palace official correspondents reported today. All his public engagements including a projected tour of Australia and New Zealand have been cancelled.

The announcement, apparently authorized by the King himself, said the ailment does not involve a blood clot.

The King's physicians said in a medical bulletin early today the King suffered from "an obstruction in the circulation of the leg which has only recently become acute" and that a defective blood supply at the right foot caused

TOO HAZARDOUS The King's five physicians announced they had decided "it would be dangerous for His Majesty to embark upon a long journey which might delay his recovery and which might well involve serious risk to a limb."

The King will continue to discharge duties which can be handled from his office in the Palace. All his appearances will either be abandoned or delegated to the Queen, Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

BETTER THAN FRIGATE OR CORVETTE

Navy to Get Fast New Anti-Submarine Ships

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—(CP)—Canada is building towards a navy of 10,000 men and is going to arm them with a fast new escort vessel, better than either the frigate or corvette, for the anti-submarine role that still is considered their primary function in any new war, it was learned today.

Navy circles said their current strength of less than 7,500 men is considerably below the minimum required to carry out their duties. They are fairly satisfied that they are slowly moving towards the desired manpower target. The figure of 10,000 represents the minimum.

Although major repairs and rearmament are usually under way, the navy now has no ships under construction but hopes to have

Second Fatal City Crash in 2 Days

Second fatal accident in the Edmonton district in two days occurred late Monday evening.

A 63-year-old East Edmonton dairy farmer was killed almost instantly when the coupe he was driving crashed into the side of a Canadian Pacific Railway parlor car as it was being backed through a south side rail crossing.

City Transit System Will Be Surveyed

Survey of Edmonton's transit system will be undertaken early next year by Norman D. Wilson, Toronto traffic and radial expert.

This was announced Monday night at city council meeting by Mayor Harry D. Ainlay.

Major Ainlay intimated that negotiations were proceeding between the city and Mr. Wilson to complete the survey started here several years ago.

Mr. Wilson is at present making a survey of Ottawa's street car and bus system, and also of traffic problems.

A similar survey will be made here, Mayor Ainlay said.

Conversion of the city's system from street car to trolley bus operation resulted from the prior report made by Mr. Wilson.

The survey to be made here will cover all phases of transit system's operations, and will also deal with traffic problems generally, the shunting out of new routes, and designating of stopping places on these routes.

Street Signs For Grierson Estate Area

Street signs in the Elmwood Park district (former Grierson estate), will be erected without delay, Mayor Harry Ainlay said today.

Postmaster-General Hon. Ernest Bertrand recently informed the Grierson residents street signs would need to be placed before mail carrier delivery would be instituted in the district.

Mr. Bertrand has also asked walks be built from street line to about 30 homes in the district before mail service will start.

The war veterans residents of the district "B" previously notified all street-travelling requirements demanded by the postmaster-general.

In a press statement issued by the Alberta provincial committee on the organization, it is charged that many Ukrainian DPs now in Canada served in the German Wehrmacht and German SS formations.

Says the statement: "They openly boast of their heroics in Europe and threaten law-abiding Ukrainian-Canadian citizens who have been completely Canadianized in the last 50 years with reprisals."

"It is open talk among Ukrainian-Canadian citizens that there are Ukrainians who are working in the German Nazi SS bands."

The statement also tends to support charges made at Sunday's meeting by the Ukrainian DP's.

The statement supports a similar charge last week by President William Terrell of the Association that "Most Displaced Persons in Canada since the end of the war are still Nazis and Fascists."

The Association of United Ukrainian-Canadians claims a membership of 11,000.

The statement also tends to support charges made at Sunday's meeting by the Ukrainian DP's.

In comparing the pressures of modern life to the call of a saint, Pope Pius said Catholic education is directed against "the frenzy for easy success, according to which everything is judged, without considering whether it is true or false, good or evil, legal or illegal."

Chances for an international wheat agreement improved considerably with the election of a Democratic-controlled Congress, said Charles Brannan, United States secretary of agriculture.

Norway has rejected an American proposal to join the Antarctic International. Her refusal makes three countries against the plan, Chile and Argentina are the other two.

"Russia is using the political doctrine of Communism as a military weapon," and had already begun the third world war when the blockade of the western powers in Berlin, according to Premier Thomas T. Halloway, premier of Australia's Victoria.

The Nation

Original Partition Plan Gets Backing

East And West Move Toward 1947 Stand On Palestine

PARIS, Nov. 23.—(CP)—Today to be known as the day of the original partition plan of the United Nations partition of Palestine.

Australia's John D. L. Hood submitted a draft resolution calling upon the 56-power political committee to set up a conciliation commission of four members or less, to help the Arabs and Jews to negotiate a permanent peace.

Russia's spokesmen frequently have said in Security Council debates on Palestine that Russia would support the partition.

Today the Yugoslav delegation said the Nov. 29 partition plan would be the basis of final settlement.

The original partition plan proposed a Jewish state of some 5,600 square miles, divided into three parts and populated by about 900,000 persons. The largest segment was the southern desert area, and it also included a central coastal strip and eastern Galilee in the north. The Arab state was to be of 4,700 square miles and about 815,000 inhabitants. Jerusalem was to have been an international area.

Britain now backs the report made by the mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte, at a hotel for Palestine. Bernadotte proposed dividing the southern part of the desert of the Negev to the Arabs. The Jews insist they were given the Negev under partition and say they will not relinquish it.

Hood also joined Canada and the United States in asking that Israel be given membership in the United Nations, when she makes application. Britain has not shown to fear. Bernadotte said she would support such a move.

Queen Limer Not To Sail

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Nov. 23.—(UPI)—The engine room crew of the liner Queen Elizabeth today rejected a proposal that the ship sail for New York tomorrow regardless of when the dock strike ends.

It was believed other crew members would not oppose the engine room's decision. The decision apparently doomed hopes that the vessel would cast off.

The proposal was advanced by

The east and west appeared in support of the original Palestine.

Auto Hits Train, Farmer Killed

There are no safety gates at the crossing.

Police provisor car operations Constables John Reid and John McCallum, who took measurements at the scene of the accident found Hood's auto had skidded 16 feet before ramming the side of the parlor car.

Hood had left his home shortly after 11 p.m. without saying where he was going.

His wife learned of the fatal accident while she was making anxious inquiries as to his whereabouts in the city where he has numerous relatives.

Mr. Hood, who came to the East Edmonton district from Oyen, Alta., over 20 years ago, ran a dairy farm east of the Ottertail mill between the Cooking Lake and Clover Bar highways.

He is well known in the district as a masthead organization of the Holstein-Friesian Association and for his registered dairy herd.

Surviving are his wife and four daughters, Miss Bunny Hood, who lives on the farm, and three daughters, Mrs. Norman Hill of Calgary, Mrs. Carl Johnson of Delmar, and Mrs. E. C. Richards of 1944 7th avenue, Edmonton; four sisters, Mrs. J. M. Richards of 81 avenue, Edmonton, Mrs. Neil Dorsey of 9444 7th avenue, Mrs. White of New Norway, and Mrs. Pont Johnson of Lethbridge.

His brother, C. W. Hood, farmer in the East Edmonton district, Charles and Arthur, of 11134 1st avenue, proprietors of the book store and the post office, are also at the university.

The Cunard White Star line, owners of the Elizabeth, they are anxious to get the $2,000,000 liner and its more than 1,400 passengers underway in the expectation the New York strike would be settled before the vessel arrived.

If the strike were not settled, the company said, the liner would anchor in the Hudson river.

King Suffering From Blood Clot

Illness—his first serious ailment since 1917 when he underwent an operation for gonorrhea. One of the Emperor's rejoicing at the birth of a son to Princess Elizabeth a week ago.

Messages of condolence poured into the palace from all quarters. While it was apparent that the King's present condition is not critical, there was no attempt to minimize the gravity of his ailment.

They agreed that the King's condition was the result of "the strain of the last 12 years," since he succeeded to the throne in 1936.

The King expects to continue his normal office duties, except for his secretaries and dealing with his responsibilities. He undoubtedly will be available to his ministers. He may use a wheel chair to rest his legs.

NO REASON FOR CONCERN

The King's doctors stressed that the monarch's general health, including his heart, "gives no reason for concern."

The doctors gave no specific medical news to the King's ailment. The possibility that the King is suffering from phlebitis was suggested in some quarters, but those reports seemed destined to go beyond the official statement.

The King, who ascended the throne in 1936 and will be 53 Dec. 14, was to have sailed with Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret in mid-January on the tour of Australia and New Zealand.

Five doctors have been giving the King long massages and electrical therapy for more than a week, it was said to be continued.

LOSS OF FEELING

About two weeks ago the King first complained of a loss of feeling in his right foot. More recently palace informants said he has been feeling pain in his foot.

It is understood the King hopes to make the royal tour when he is fully recovered. It may be understood well the rigors of the two-month tour of South Africa taken by the royal family when they covered some 10,000 miles by train, automobile and plane.

Prime Minister Clement of Australia said all of us and sent a message to Buckingham Palace.

At Ottawa Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent today sent a telegram to King George, wishing him an "early and complete" recovery from his circulatory ailment.

U.S. Authorities Analyze Illness

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Medical authorities here said today the King's ailment was not a blood clot.

Several nights prior to the shooting, these two juveniles together with another juvenile entered another parked vehicle from which they stole three boxes of high-powered rifle ammunition, some of this being sold, some turned in to the police and some thrown into a fire.

One Good Meal In U.K.

Empty Larder For Week

Britain Cuts Rations Far Below Level of Worst War Days, to Help Her Trade Recovery Effort.

London, Oct. 28.—(UPI)—You can make a pretty full meal of two small lamb chops, two slices of bacon, the usual vegetables and one and a half ounces of cheese. But if an Englishman did so, he would have little but vegetable and perhaps some fish and a few canned goods left to eat for the rest of the week.

Three years after the end of the war, British food rations are smaller than they were when Hitler's bombs and rockets were falling on this island.

Only the barest minimum of food is being imported to supplement inadequate home-grown supplies. And the government has warned that food imports will have to be cut still more unless industry meets its production and export targets. During the war, food rationing fluctuated between 44 cent worth and 24 cents worth. Now it is 30 cents worth—the equivalent of about two small lamb chops. The wartime bacon and ham ration varied between three and eight ounces weekly. Now it is only two ounces a week—about two slices of bacon.

The cheese ration has dropped from eight ounces to one and a half ounces weekly, the jam ration from one pound to a half pound a month, the sugar ration from four ounces to two ounces weekly.

The sugar ration dropped from four ounces to two ounces weekly during the war and has remained that since.

Britain can supplement these meagre rations with ration-free foreign food, vegetables and fruit, as well as canned goods. The latter are rationed on "points" however, and each individual limits to 24 points a month.

Point values vary from 26 points for a large can of salmon to 10 points for a can of dried eggs.

There is practically no black market in Britain. Prices of the basic food rations are kept down by heavy government subsidies.

UNITING CANADIANS TO GIVE BRITAIN STRENGTH

Through a National Agency that brings ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY to Canadian Aid to Britain

OBJECTIVES:

CANADA	$7,000,000
ALBERTA	$400,000
EDMONTON	$100,000
Rural North Alberta	$100,000

The monies raised in the current drive will be used to buy food in bulk in Canada, of the types most urgently needed in Britain. This will be parceled in Britain for distribution to the needy without charge, through the many co-operating British organizations.

The monies now being raised will stock the warehouses provided in the British Isles and by early January, first distributions to Britons will be going out.

Beginning early next year, and continuing so long as the need exists, facilities of U.E.F.B. will be available to any society or organization wishing to send parcels in its own name to approved British recipients.

Standardized U.E.F.B. packed parcels of various sizes and prices, containing selected foodstuffs for deficient diets, are being prepared and will be available shortly. These will be packed in Britain from the bulk shipments made by the Fund.

The savings in transport and handling costs—obtained through the Fund—will be passed on to the individual or group desiring to send parcels to Britain. The cost of the parcels will likely be announced early in the New Year.

Arrangements are also being completed to handle donations of used clothing, bedding, and similar items, also without cost to the sender, early in the coming year.

The primary object at present is to raise the initial funds to get the bulk food shipments into Britain, and to start U.E.F.B.'s own free distribution of food in the United Kingdom with the least possible delay.

Grant Backs School Course For Drivers

The necessity for driver-training in schools, including those in Alberta, was discussed at the annual convention of the American Automobile Association, held recently in San Antonio, Texas.

C. H. Grant, director of the association, returned to Edmonton Monday and reports that consideration was given to the discussion of school driver-training, as well as off-street parking.

Mr. Grant reports that in the United States, over 160,000 pupils receive instruction in driver-training in schools for dual-controlled cars which were provided by the American Automobile Association.

In Edmonton, Mr. Grant said the Alberta Motor Association has a dual-controlled car for driver teaching in schools and the car will be delivered as soon as the Edmonton School Board votes a need for it.

Mr. Grant said that Alberta shares a goodly spotlight in the States, due to the publicity given the oil discovery in the Leduc area. His copy of "Canadian Oil," carried with him to the convention, was well-known, testifying to the interest shown by delegates from over 20 States, Hawaii and six foreign countries.

Alberta in tourist traffic is "expected next year, a good share of which will be attributed to interest in Alberta oil," Mr. Grant said that delegates in San Antonio suggested that if oil discovery continued to boom here, Alberta may become known as the "Texas of Canada."

Edmonton public and separate school teachers instructing displaced persons at classes in the city will be assisted by Florence Gaylor, formerly of Ottawa.

Miss Gaylor is in Edmonton through arrangement with the Canadian Citizenship Council, which is sponsoring her.

On Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Miss Gaylor will give citizenship classes at the McHugh and St. Mary's high schools.

About 300 displaced persons, mostly women and children, are domiciled, at the classes.

Davis Death Inquest Set For Nov. 29

Inquest into the death of 40-year-old mink rancher Herbert Davis, 1007 120 street, will be held Nov. 29, it was learned today from RCMP headquarters.

Davis was killed instantly early Saturday night when the half-ton truck he was driving was in a collision with a heavy vehicle on the St. Albert trail, two-and-a-half miles from Edmonton.

A companion with Davis at the time, 60-year-old Charles Heppner, miraculously escaped with slight injuries.

Driver of the other truck was reported by police to have been James Miller, Edmonton.

Funeral services will be held at 1:45 p.m. Wednesday, at Foster and McCreedy funeral home.

Davis, who was well known in the city, is survived by his father, F. Davis of 1115 St. Albert trail, a brother, Roy Davis of 11013 100 street and a sister, Mrs. Violet Carroll of Vegreville.

Socred Women Solidly Behind Manning Gov't

Alberta's Social Credit administration as guided by Premier Ernest Manning was endorsed without dissent by the provincial convention of the Social Credit Women's Auxiliary today.

The resolution, first to appear before the delegates, expressed confidence in Manning's administration and urged the government "to press the fight with all vigor against all forms of monopoly and centralization in the economy."

A resolution dealing with a loosening of restrictions on old age pensions, a Canadianization of the limits and abolition of the means test, also endorsed by the delegates.

Confidence in the work of federal Social Credit members was voiced in a third resolution which received the approval of the convention.

One resolution prepared for the convention asked the government to use its powers to curb the radio broadcasting of horror stories.

Another resolution appearing on the agenda called on the Alberta government to join the Red Cross of Canterbury from speaking in the province.

The ladies have also prepared a series of resolutions asking for implementation of the Alberta Bill of Rights, found ultra vires by the Privy Council some time ago.

Delegates heard Alderman Mrs. Rose Wilkinson, M.L.A. of Calgary, urge them to take a more active part in political life. The role of women could be greater in the world affairs if all women would become more active, she thought.

The Mountain Comes to Mohammed as Edmonton Flyer Rookie Visits Bulletin Sports Office

"SEE BY THE PAPER we dropped a couple at the week-end. So what," says Colin Kilburn, WCHL point leader, "We'll bounce right back against Calgary Stampeders come Wednesday at the Arena."

EVEN WHEN THEY LOSE a tough one there's always a good joke going the rounds in the dressing room of the Allan cup champions. "Dads, here the one . . ."

week-end in Lethbridge, to Bulletin sports writer Jim Algeo. Spirit of camaraderie in the Flyer camp was one of the big reasons for the success of the squad as it swept all before it in Canadian amateur ranks last season.

"WHAT!—You mean all this is going in the paper?" exclaims the Flyer rookie. "If I had known this I would have made you answer most of the questions. Surely you guys know all the answers by this time."

WCHL Soft Go For Keen Juniors?

By Jim Algeo
What is it that inspires him, a rookie, who, for the most part, has only modest success sniping points in his junior years, to promptly step out and pick up a bushel in his first senior season against presumably, rougher, tougher and wiser players?

Or, more to the point, is the senior game all it's cracked up to be?

The aforementioned queries Monday were put to model Colin Kilburn, Edmonton Flyer winger, who has amazed Western Canada Hockey league followers and players alike by forging to the front in the points parade.

BIG GUYS CAN HIT
It was a sly reply that Kilburn offered. While he wouldn't come out and say that playing senior is a duck soup, he "hasn't found it tough so far." Of one thing he is sure: "When you are tagged by guys like Gus Kyle and Vic Miles, you really are hit. The juniors do a lot of knocking and bumping, but it doesn't hurt too much."

It's funny Doug Anderson, rookie award winner last season and himself, have had it pretty tough in senior company. They grew up when Junior hockey was at a feverish heat, both learned to take the knocks dished out by rugged performers.

Kilburn attributes most of his success with Flyers to crack veteran line-mates. "Playing with guys like Bill Mauer, Morley Rimstad and Bernie Bathgate has helped plenty."

This may be, but when a guy plugs like Kilburn, he's bound to get his share and more of the points.

Kilburn has been a plunger all his hockey days. He started out as a goalie when still in mid-juniors, but soon shed the big pads because he wanted to get up there where more fireworks take place.

Last season Kilburn enjoyed his greatest success in Junior ranks as a mainstay with Wetaskiwin Canadians. There were several players with more class on the team, but it was Kilburn, with his never-say-die spirit, who carried the torch.

You just can't beat this thing called fighting heart, the kind Kilburn possesses.

SONS NOT SO TOUGH
Speaking of plunk reminds one of a story going the rounds just prior to the Lethbridge Native Sons vs. Wetaskiwin play-off, a court rumpus. Tough boys on the Edmonton housewife effect, they would put Kilburn out of the game in the first game.

It wasn't that easy to get rid of Colin, a member of one of Edmonton's best-known hockey families.

INDIANS SELL BOB MCMURFEE TO PIRATES

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23.—(AP)—Cleveland Indians Monday announced the sale of Bob Muncie to the Pittsburgh Pirates, for a sum in excess of the waiver price of $10,000.

The right-hander was acquired from St. Louis Browns last June. He is the first member to leave the world champion's fold.

He started last season with an early flash of brilliance in June but was not too effective from then on, winding up with a record of five wins and four losses.

He was in there fighting right to the final whistle. Sons won the series handily, but they didn't take the knocks dished out by rugged performers.

Who is the smoothest forward in the WCHL, outside the Flyers? For Kilburn's money you can't keep Calgary's Red Hunter out of that list. Toughest defense in the Regina's Miles and Myles, while another Cap Bert, Bentley, gets the nod as goal-tender.

He thinks Flyers have the team in the west, but it's a little too early to predict who will win it all.

Many of the Flyers faithful figure that one of these days Kilburn will get his wish, the St. Louis Blues, at least in the early going, as they lay for him. We don't think so. Neither does he. "I'll be my own fault if they do," he says.

As for the Rookie of the year? Well, who else is there. Certainly none, at least in the early going, compares with Edmonton's fire-cracker.

Mr. Ducey Blows Off

Monday, Nov. 22, 1948
Dear Diary: What a day... what a day! Gabbing with promoters, long stretches on the telephone, reading the mail, meetings, etc.

John Ducey... to start with. He's running a king-sized burn on account of a printed suggestion of ours to the effect that the Big Four Baseball league by-law having to do with "tampering" is called, is "highly inflexible and somewhat impractical."

"Where would we be," he stormed, "if the manager of one team was allowed to tamper with players of another? It would be a fine state of affairs, wouldn't it?"

He went on: "Why don't you take a crack at those hockey men for a change? Imagine refusing a boy a transfer and making him come all the way back from Toronto. They won't even let a young fellow get away when he has a chance to do some good for himself. At least we don't go that far."

"What's more, Beatty says you're from hunger. Also he wants to know what's doing in football circles."

"You've certainly gone overboard on that score, haven't you?"

There was more... much more. After all this is the off-season for baseball men. Time means nothing.

Mr. Mason Sounds Off

Next Gene Mason, whose Friday night last opening fight card of the season laid anything but an egg. "Definitely Roddy MacDonald wants a rematch against Halligan," he admits. "I'm pretty sure it comes up, you'll see a different MacDonald. He'll either knock Halligan out or go down for the count himself."

"This time he'll throw some leather."

Of course promoter Mason hasn't a clue as to whether he's in line for any more permits from the Boxing and Wrestling Commission. He was on a trial basis for the latter. Needless to say he figures to apply for a second round document, would like to "show again" (as he calls it) on Dec. 3.

Following which we try to get Clare Warner, president of the Western Canadian Hockey Union, to discuss "Mr. Warner is out of town for a week"... the girl finds out at the Regina end.

On the next try we do better. This time the call is to Bill Price, star Varsity basketball player, first winner of the Gene Carrigan Memorial trophy, Big Four league all-star second rounder.

"Who's to be Alberta's representative on the Royal Canadian Golf Association?" is the $64 query.

"Why not Johnny Munro from your way?" Borland parries. "He's been doing a good job."

So Munro, the man of a few million words, will go right on selling Alberta golf to the bigwigs at 392 Bay Street, Hightown.

Then J. Baldrige, 9540 110th Avenue, tries to tap us for the pitching record of ex-major league "Kid" Nichols.

... which some referee we refer to J. Taylor Spink of the Sporting News, Los Angeles.

Mr. Price Calls It Off

Telephone receiver in hand once more. This time the call is to Bill Price, star Varsity basketball player, first winner of the Gene Carrigan Memorial trophy, Big Four league all-star second rounder.

Point of the call is to confirm that Price is that rarity in Big Four circles, a free agent. "Yep. That's right," he confirms. Then it comes out that he isn't likely to see action with Varsity's Golden Bears of the basketball whiff. "I'm bearing down on my studies... want a graduate in the spring."

Then Cormack rings in about the Thursday banquet at which the football all-star game of St. Joe's-senior and junior—will be guests of honor. Then it's the turn of Bob Edwards of the curling world, wanting to know about a picture of the curling team.

From the letter file we extract one from a writer who thinks it would be no more than fitting if heads of the Western Canada Hockey league worked out some kind of a special game to honor Ken McAuley, who recently had to quit it quits as Saskatoon net-minder.

And Miss F. Stordahl writes that she's all confused by Bill Maher signs his autographs "Mahar," whereas the papers insist on giving his name the Mc-h-e-r treatment. (Sure now, and what would Peter Maher be thinking about this situation?)

A busy time? You bet. Still it probably beats working

EDHA Refuses Aid To Wetaskiwin Club

How can you have a hockey team without sufficient players?

That's the question uppermost in the minds of Wetaskiwin junior officials these days.

Entered in the Northern Alberta Intermediate puck circuit, Wetaskiwin is scheduled to meet Waterloo Wednesday night at the Waterloo arena. The game is scheduled to open on Monday night at the arena.

AID BADLY NEEDED

It will be a shabby looking team, unless it is forthcoming in the near future.

Herb Strehl, Wetaskiwin official, was turned down from the Edmonton and District Hockey association Monday evening. His efforts were futile, however, as city officials turned thumbs down on any help, via transfers.

The request was voted down because local youths "didn't see they could assist without jeopardizing the strength of our league," Earl Sande, EDHA president stated.

AHA REQUEST

Original request for Wetaskiwin aid from the EDHA came in a recent letter from the Alberta Hockey association. The Edmonton board was asked to help the Wetaskiwin juniors.

The EDHA also stuck to its decision to grant them no aid. A speedy local junior Canadian, a transfer to Wetaskiwin, Haley's request was turned down two weeks ago.

It is felt that CAHA and AHA should come to the aid of Wetaskiwin by increasing the number of transfers. Haley's request was turned down two weeks ago.

Wetaskiwin lost a game with two to six. Wetaskiwin lost a game with two to six. Wetaskiwin lost a game with two to six.

ANOTHER ONE-LEGGED FOOTBALLER IN EAST

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—(CP)—Gordon Shorting, 18-year-old Toronto all-star high school football player doesn't think it strange that he should play football on one leg.

How does he get around the field? "I just run," says Gordon, who plays for Parkdale College.

Gordon, whose left leg was amputated 6½ inches below the knee when crushed by a truck five years ago, says he has learned to shift his weight to give himself a maximum of momentum.

He compared notes last week with Lloyd Vivian of Tansley, Ont., playing captain of the Tansley high school team whose right leg was amputated below the knee when he was two years old.

Both Gordon and Lloyd play hockey, basketball and baseball. But football is their favorite game.

Flyers Recuperate From One-Two Blow

Flyers' Men-At-Work sign saw no service Monday as the somewhat deflated Allan Cup holders (they blew the duke at Calgary and Lethbridge to wind up last week) took the day off from their workout routine.

About the only member of the squad to give his attention to hockey was Colin Kilburn, rookie winger who has become the early season sensation of the Western Canada league.

Kilburn, subject of a feature column where in the sports section, spent considerable time with Eric Land, Butehead photographer, but of his plans probably went out on the town after the fashion of athletes on their days off from practice.

However they'll get back to their chores tonight in preparation for Wednesday's clash with Calgary Stampede. The Stamps, who played like a lot of men while blowing to Flyers 6-3 a week ago, turned right around and edged the locals in Cowtown by 5-4 two nights later. What's more they spotted the league titlist their four corners.

Following the Calgary engagement, the Flyers will take a 75-hour break before tackling Regina Caps, also at the Arena, Saturday night.

Eskimos Release Starry Bill Price

Remember the Ducey-Timmins diamond rharb of last spring over the playing rights to Bill Price? Gist of the dispute was that Price, after a season at second base for Eskimos of the Big Four loop, had up and decided to hang his baseball glove in the dressing room of Mr. Sam Timmins' Calgary Buffs.

When the news reached Ducey's ears he reacted in violent fashion. First of all he hastily reached his copy of the "Life of Judge Landis" and baseball's first dictator—and thus forthrightly sought to the attack.

Price will not play for Buffs or any other team in the Big Four loop. He is a free agent and sundry who would listen. Mostly he informed Mr. Timmins, who at the same time reminding him that Sam of a league by-law prohibiting such raiding of other clubs, unless the player—or players—be released.

There were hot words on both sides. Price made the usual statements about the injustice of it all. He threatened to sue. But in the end righteousness—in the form of the league constitution—prevailed. Price stayed with the Eskimos... went on to his final season as Ed Morris steered the hotmen to the league crown.

FOOT LOOSE, FANCY FREE

But this time all six months and more back. Finally it was learned that Price has officially granted a release by the Eskimo management. In other words he has his freedom, can play for the Buffs—or even Purdy or Cubs—if he desires.

Funny part of the situation is that now Price has his walking ticket there seems to be no barrier on either side. "I was treated swell last summer," Price enthused when cracked down.

"I may wind up right back with the Eskimos."

Providing all well, Price will graduate in engineering in the fall.

Defence Needs Aim Hopes For Heavy Income Tax Cuts

By Douglas How

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—(CP)—Defence requirements, cutting two ways, are helping keep living costs up and are at least partially dimming expectations of heavy income tax cuts for Canadians in the next budget.

The first factor so far is rooted largely in the United States rearmament program which has an important indirect effect on the Canadian economy. The second stems from a number of indications that next year's defence budget will surpass that for the 1948-49 fiscal year which included $325,000,000 in cash and nearly $100,000,000 in authority for added commitments.

Fine Team Spirit Developed as Tots Engage in Pre-School Training Classes

BOYS AND GIRLS take the best way of learning to play and work, modern teachers are finding. Civic Recreation Commission, pre-school training classes at McCauley Playgrounds are operated for this purpose. Modelling with plasticine is both interesting and lots of fun. Little Deanne Schilke, two and one-half, (left), and Ruth Hague, one and one-half, are busily engaged.

A MASTERPIECE could be in the making here as Clifford Schilke, four, works diligently with his crayon. Kiddies soon learn to take a keen interest in their work after a few sessions of group training. Recreation supervisors have found.

THIS STORY IS SURE to have a happy ending but there will likely be moments of excitement, too. Story time is always popular with the little folk, who are in this group from left: Elaine Bruggenette, five; Marie Chute, five; teacher Kay Mitchell; Ralph Fossun, four and Lynda Grove, four and one-half. Youngsters are often shy at first and sometimes even slightly hostile, but group classes for play and work soon build new and delightful friendships and prepare the kiddies for co-operative efforts in the highly-important years to come.

Name of the company was not disclosed by commissioners pending completion of negotiations.

Cheque Artist Goes to Jail

A 25-year-old bogus cheque artist who was mistakenly returned to the scene of one of his crimes was given a nine-month prison term Monday by judge Magistrate A. J. Miller.

He is John Ferguson of Ponoka who is wanted in B.C. and Saskatchewan for passing worthless cheques in addition to three similar offences in Edmonton for which he received concurrent sentences of nine, six and four months.

Ferguson was arrested Nov. 10 by Detective Frank Knapert and Jerry Langford.

His arrest followed a "tipoff" from an alert department store employee who recognized him in the store and remembered he had cashed a $75 bogus cheque in August of this year.

Beatification Seen
VATICAN CITY, Nov. 23.—(AP)—The Italian news agency Ansa said last night the Vatican radio had broadcast a report saying it is probable that Pope Pius XII will be beatified during the holy year 1950.

Pope Pius X reigned from 1903 to 1914. He was Giuseppe Sarto of Riese, Italy.

Cadi Assails Pair For Cowardly Act

Two brothers who stood charged with assault in police court here Monday were dealt with severely by Magistrate J. W. McCulla, who assailed as "cowardly" their November 9 attack on a 44-year-old Carvel Corner farmer.

The pair, Julian MacChabon of Ryley, and Leonard MacChabon, Duffield, had tried separately in a day-long trial which ended in stiff fines and reprimands from Magistrate McCulla.

The two are blood-brothers, but have taken different names. MacChabon was represented by E. B. Wilson, K.C., who was fined $50 and costs, while McCulla was found guilty on the assault charge and a charge of obstructing an officer and was fined $100 on the first count, and $20 on the lesser charge.

Their appearances in court followed an attack earlier this month in which Otto Hering was beaten by the two men as he walked along a road. Still bearing bruises, Hering appeared in court presented by Gerald Amorengeon.

PURPOSE CLEAR
"There can be no doubt for what purpose these men followed Hering," Amorengeon said as he addressed Magistrate McCulla.

The early morning altercation took place along the highway near Kapawasin.

In pronouncing sentences immediately following final arguments of both defence and prosecution, Magistrate McCulla said: "This is a very serious crime. It certainly was very cowardly for two men to attack this farmer."

THIEVES NET CASH, TIRES IN BREAK-INS

Two break-ins Monday night, one in a motor company and the other at a private home, netted thieves two tires, $48 cash, and a gold watch.

Robert McGregor, owner of McGregor Motors at 1529 113 avenue, reported to police that two tires after thieves forced their way into the establishment through the front door.

Also missing from the break-in which took place between 2 and 4 this morning were a number of oil company credit slips.

After returning to her home at 1107 85 street Monday night, Mrs. M. Pilling discovered loss of $40 in bills, and $8 from a pair of pennies. An old gold pocket watch also was stolen.

Mrs. Pilling left the rear door unlocked when she left the house.

Firemen Battle Slight Blaze

Firemen against their first real fire in over a week this morning when they battled a stubborn kitchen blaze at 7717 112 avenue.

The fire, which started from a gas range, caused extensive damage to the kitchen but the rest of the house was untouched.

A turned-up burner was said to set fire to the gas and a stocking hanging around the stove. Mrs. K. Smith, occupant of the house, was away when the fire started.

Firemen from No. 5 and 7 halls answered the call at 8:15. The home is said to be one of many new houses which have been built in the vicinity.

REGINALD GODDEN THRILLS AUDIENCE

One of the most enjoyable concerts of the present musical season was presented Monday night by Canadian pianist Reginald Godden.

A native of Hamilton, and principal of that city's Conservatory of Music, Mr. Godden played as guest artist for the University Musical Club in Convocation Hall.

About 500 persons attended the concert, which was highly enjoyed by the instrumentalists who knew only technique.

Through six encores, Mr. Godden delighted his audience, and the applause and enthusiasm played a part in the success of the concert.

A superb artist with a splendid technique, he plays his music with the same enthusiasm and appreciation that followed each of the preliminary numbers.

From each delicate pianissimo to each rich, full fortissimo, Mr. Godden's expression was perfect. Included in Mr. Godden's program were: A brilliant and rapid rendition of the exceedingly difficult Etudes Symphoniques by Schumann; a warm and exhilarating rendition of that Beethoven favorite, the Sonata Appassionata, Op. 57; five delightful Debussy compositions.

Etude for five fingers, a Cathedral Organ, Minuet, Clair de Lune, Fugue, and the six encores, Mr. Godden's program was a triumph. Mr. Godden has more than proven himself a Canadian pianist of extraordinary musical ability; we expect to be hearing him again at Edmonton concert-halls.

Jury Finds Woman's Death Is Accidental

Edmonton's transit system has been absolved of blame in connection with the death of 68-year-old Mrs. Maria Facinelli of 5538 107 avenue, who died Nov. 9 as a result of a fractured skull, rib and other multiple injuries received when she was struck by a trolley bus.

A coroner's jury Monday brought in a verdict of accidental death after a trial of Mrs. Facinelli's death.

The jury stipulated that the city's transit system was in no way to be held responsible.

"We are of the opinion that the death was accidental and the bus driver did all within his power to avoid the accident and was in no way to blame."

The elderly woman was struck by the bus as it started through the intersection going south when she dodged around the rear of a northbound auto in front of it.

Several witnesses were heard in today's hearing. Dr. M. M. Cantor presided.

Mrs. Olson Recries Socialism in Homes

60 Delegates Attend Convention Of Social Credit Auxiliaries

Socialism holds no place in the life of the home, Mrs. Florence Olson of Calgary warned women Social Crediters today.

Mrs. Olson is president of the Women's Auxiliary of Alberta Social Credit League and she spoke at the opening meeting of the Auxiliary convention being held Tuesday at the Masonic Temple.

Sixty delegates are attending the convention.

Never forget the principles for which you stand, Mrs. Olson advised. She said it was necessary for women to take a hand in political matters as well as those in the home and urged them to remain steady in their devotion and faith to their ideals.

Provincial organizer of Auxiliary Mrs. Floyd Baker reported progress and enthusiasm in Auxiliary work. She has travelled all over the province and has formed many new groups.

She said socialism was at a high peak with some homes travelling 60 miles to meetings.

Reporting on the Alberta Home-maker, the Auxiliary cook book, Mrs. Baker said that $2,500 had been raised from sale of these books. This will go to the building fund.

Greetings to the 60 delegates were brought by Mrs. W. L. White, president of Edmonton Council of Auxiliaries.

One said she hoped the women would find something worthwhile to the convention to take back to their groups. She commended Mrs. Baker for her splendid work in training provincial Auxiliaries.

Honorary Mrs. White were given Mrs. E. E. Carpenter, president of Calgary Council of Auxiliaries; and Mrs. C. E. Gogan, president, Social Credit Women's Auxiliary of Olds.

Treasurer, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, gave her report.

Brains of both men and women are wanted to shape the world as we want it, said Alderman Rose Williams, Mayor of Calgary. She said it didn't look as if women were taking a hand in world affairs although she believed a great difference would be shown if they did.

For the first time in the Women's Auxiliary was given by D. J. Thompson, president of Alberta Social Credit League.

He brought greetings from the League and pointed out its purpose of establishing men in his own work of the women is very essential in accomplishing this objective, he said.

Our journey is to reach the goal of Social Credit for the people of Alberta, said Mrs. C. T. Wood, M.L.A. for Stony Plain, when she addressed delegates.

Before the goal is reached, count Mrs. Wood, five points must be remembered: we must know what we want to do; we must do it; we must be successful; we must be able to reach the goal; we must be able to make sacrifices to accomplish the objective.

Evening Groups Sponsor Bazaar

Mrs. H. D. Collins and Mrs. W. T. Carley have been invited to preside at the bazaar being held by the evening groups of St. Mary's W.A. (W.A. stands for Women's Auxiliary) on Wednesday from 7 until 11 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Guests will be received by Mrs. W. T. Carley, Mrs. H. D. Collins and Mrs. T. M. White.

Work and home cooking tables will be presided over by members of the various groups.

Students Collecting For Xmas Hamper Fund

Christmas cheer will be brought to residents of northern Alberta by students at the University of Alberta. An annual campus project sponsored by the Students' Union is the Christmas Hamper Fund.

With $500 as a nucleus, members of the Wauneta Society are scouring the campus collecting clothes and books. Everything and anything is welcomed by the scavenging Waunetas.

Kiddies' clothes and toys of all descriptions are particular items requested. While foodstuffs and grocery books are also sought after, articles, dolls to make some little girls, and Christmas morning and games to gladden the heart of some young boy are other items which the Waunetas are looking for.

Most of the $500 will be used for purchasing (tannette), baby clothes and food. But necessary as clothes and toys for the children are, clothing and reading material for adults are also being collected. Pembina, Hay where the articles are being assembled, resembles a miniature store.

With only 10 more collecting days left, members of the Wauneta Society are busy at work at assembling and packing the articles. All the collected items together with Christmas wrappings will be shipped to stores in 17 Provincial Public Health Districts throughout the province.

These stores will be responsible for the packing of hampers for families in their districts needing Voluntary assistance. Old-age pensioners, widows with families and families with income less than $100 a year will receive a U.S. Christmas cheer.

Tary Harrison and Marjorie Lee are in charge of the collection of articles. It is expected that more than 100 hampers will be packed.
